PROFESSIONAL, CONTEMPORARY PLAYS IN AN INTIMATE SETTING

CIRCLE THEATRE ANNOUNCES WORLD PREMIERE OF DESTROYING DAVID

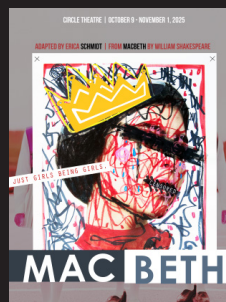

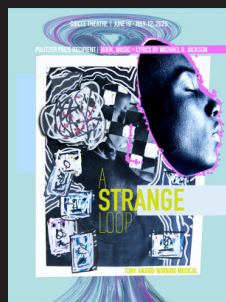

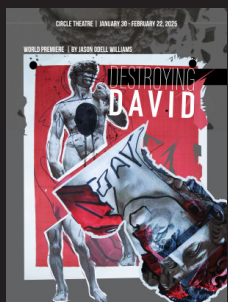

Fort Worth – December 26, 2024

Sundance SquareSM — Destroying David is a thrilling, funny, and wild journey where art and life collide. What begins as an intriguing exploration of Michelangelo's masterpiece soon takes an interesting turn as an enigmatic Art Restorer has orchestrated a private tour of the museum and "David" for our audiences. There's more than meets the eye when intentions become clear and the Art Restorer intertwines the statue's fascinating history with their own deeply personal story.

Destroying David is a high-stakes narrative about the transformative impact of both destruction and creation. This riveting story, lead by powerhouse actor and entertainer Amanda Reyes, kicks off Circle Theatre's 44th Season by examining perceptions of beauty, resilience, and the quest for redemption, leaving audiences on the edge of their seats as they witness firsthand the confrontation between beautiful artistry and anguish.

During her residency, Leah will enhance our space with vibrant lobby displays showcasing local artists and collaborative gallery projects. She will also design scenery for at least two of our productions (Artemisia and Hundred Days) and aims to create living exhibits and experiences to supplement the Season throughout. Leah's latest work, inspired by our shows, are featured on our 2025 Show Posters and will be on display in Downtown Fort Worth through 2025.

AN EVENING WITH...

The love of local artistry continues with four special events titled "An Evening With...". This series will feature four focused experiences celebrating the vibrant theatre community of DFW. These free evenings will offer valuable insights and foster connections among artists while honoring the legacies of some of the region's most influential figures in global theatre.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYWRITING PROJECT 2025

Since 1981, Circle has produced quality theatre by professional playwrights. In addition to supporting emerging playwrights, Circle has created an annual High School Playwriting Project funded by the Kiwanis Club of Fort Worth. Students across the DFW metroplex can submit their 10-minute plays for a chance to receive prizes, scholarships, and a public reading featuring professional actors. The free Finalist Reading Series will take place on May 4, 2025 at Circle Theatre. Teachers who are interested in bringing this program to their schools can find more information at circletheatre.com/hssp or email hssp@circletheatre.com with any questions or to set up a Zoom informational session!
